Few destinations evoke tropical paradise better than Bali. Tucked on the northeastern tip of Bali is the beach town of Amed. The pace here is relaxed, and the coastal scenery stunning. As the winning bidder of this luxury getaway, you have an entire week to discover the culture and beauty of this lovely island.

You'll stay at Villa Paradiso, an exquisite, recently built home that sits a few hundred meters from the beach and offers gorgeous views of the ocean, the lush river valley, and the mountains.

The house features three en-suite bedrooms (2 with King beds, 1 with twin beds), separate one-bedroom cottage, and a full-size kitchen equipped with all the modern amenities. Sliding glass doors surround the living and dining areas and open out to the private 40-foot swimming pool, and there is a smaller shallow pool for children. Breakfast is available in the adjacent Garden Café.

Also included are four massages at the Apakabar on-site spa and your choice of a ½-day tour of the area, a snorkeling excursion or one diving excursion with a master diver (for up to 4 experienced divers).

A special Balinese dinner is planned for your final evening—a bittersweet reminder that your week has drawn to a close, and perhaps the impetus to plan your next visit to this paradise.

NOTE: To be scheduled for mutually agreeable Saturday-to-Saturday stay within two years of purchase. Airfare, added meals, drinks, phone, excursions, transportation, and gratuities not included. Transfers not allowed without previous consent.
